Human Resources

Career Connect
CHOOSE YOUR PATH

CAREER STATS

POTENTIAL SALARY
Highest-earning HR managers make around $83,940*
10/10

AVERAGE SALARY
Average HR manager in SC makes $63,560
8/10

DEGREE REQUIREMENT
HRs managers only need a certificate to get started
8/10

TIME COMMITMENT
You can earn a certificate in under a year
8/10

JOB AVAILABILITY
Around 7,860 human resources jobs available in SC
8/10

JOB SECURITY
This industry is expected to grow by 10% through 2030*
9/10

The Career Score attempts to score each career relative to the other careers on this website. Salary info and other data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics and Salary.com * Denotes info based on nationwide statistics

OVERVIEW

If you want to start a career in human resources, you can start with either a certificate or a degree program. Whichever option you choose, you will be on your way to a career with an average salary of $53,560 in SC. If you're organized and enjoy working with people, HR is the perfect career for you.

If you want to help people make the most of their jobs, a career in human resources is right for you. As a human resources manager, you will be responsible for hiring, new employee training, employee benefits, resolving workplace disputes, and more. In short, you will plan, coordinate, and direct the administrative functions of an organization. If this sounds good to you, you can start your career training at York Technical College.

EDUCATION

HUMAN RESOURCES DEGREE

21 CLASSES (60 CREDIT HOURS)

HUMAN RESOURCES CERT.

13 CLASSES (37 CREDIT HOURS)

Human resources managers work with people. They oversee the recruiting, interviewing, and hiring of new staff. They also manage employee benefits and compensation. Human resources managers should be organized and personable, as they work with individuals every day. With a 10% growth rate forecasted between now and 2030, now is a perfect time to get your human resources career started.

Act as the link between an organization's management and its employees.